CHAIRMAN AND CEO'S REPORT

STUART GILCHRIST, Chairman ANDREW SAXBY, CEO

We strive to make a big contribution and continue to invest in our people, the community and our products and services.

REVIEW OF OPERATIONS

Hume continues to achieve acceptable outcomes; with modest asset growth combined with higher costs resulting from recent investments to improve customer service contributing to lower pre-tax operating profit.

In continuing uncertain economic times, consumers are encouraged to shop around and look for a better deal however, when considering their financial provider, many stick with their existing bank where they have a record and existing relationship. Against this backdrop, the increase of more than a thousand people choosing to bank at Hume is an outstanding result and confirms that recent decisions, including opening a branch at White Box Rise, upgrading the ATM network and internet and mobile banking software were recognised.

An improvement in the Capital Adequacy Ratio (the universal measure of financial strength) to 14.8% confirms that the level of investment achieves the balance between future growth and current financial stability. A Roy Morgan Research Customer Satisfaction Rating of 94.0% confirms that customers are benefitting from the investment. A staff Engagement ratio of 81%, as measured by the Hay Group from survey results from 93% of staff means that employees also approve Hume's strategy.

PROFITABILITY & GROWTH

Hume's pre-tax profit reduced by 10.6% to $4.248m after operating expenses increased by 3.3% to $19.294m. The increase in costs includes the branch at White Box Rise in Wodonga for 10 months and is an acceptable result recognising that personnel costs, which make up nearly half of all Hume's costs, increased by 4% after including staff for the new branch. There were also costs arising from the purchase and development of a new training facility which will also be used for meetings and as an alternate Administration Centre in the event that Head Office is unable to operate for any reason.

Net interest income decreased by 1.4% to $19.681m despite a 3.9% increase in total assets. Total assets were $883.9m at June 2013, up from $850.9m last year. Loan balances increased by $28.8m or 4.4% despite near record net loan approvals of $135m during the year. Despite Hume's response to the 0.75% reduction in the cash rate during the year, many borrowers elected not to reduce their monthly repayments and, as a result, they are reducing their debt much faster than they need to. This has always been encouraged, even though it tends to reduce Hume's profit.

There seems to be a general expectation that everyone benefits from lower interest rates however Hume shares the pain of the 16% of its customers that have term deposits. The average return on Hume's deposits and investments with other ADIs decreased by 1.4% during the year causing a reduction in interest income of over $1.1m compared to the previous year based on average balances of nearly $200m. A 1.4% lower return from investments and a 0.88% lower return from loans and advances need to be viewed against a 0.75% reduction in the cash rate. The loan rate comparison highlights that Hume continues to put its customers ahead of its own profitability.

As noted above, the capital adequacy ratio improved during the year and, even after excluding the tier 2 capital raised as term subordinated debt late last calendar year, it increased by 0.27% to 14.34% at year end. This comfortably exceeds the new Basel III requirements that came into effect on 1 January 2013

CHANGE IN NAME

At the General Meeting at which this Report is tabled for review, Members will be invited to approve a recommendation from the Board to change

Hume Building Society Ltd's name to Hume Bank Limited. If approved, the Board will then seek APRA's approval to use the restricted words 'bank', 'banker' and 'banking' and, if approved, it is expected that the name will change to Hume Bank Limited on 1 July 2014.

Recommending a change to Hume's name is not a decision to be taken lightly, however many Members will recall when "Permanent" was dropped from Hume's name several years ago. It is important that Hume's name remains current and contemporary with changes in the community and banking sector.

The name will change, but the way Hume manages its business and the way it relates to customers will not. We will be happy if Members and customers continue to refer to us as "Hume"; but we will be very proud that they can finally say "their bank".

Hume Bank offers a strong but friendly name; retaining the goodwill and trust that has been generated over 58 years of Member or Customer ownership and combining that with a universally recognised title that confirms the full range of financial products on offer. Hume Bank will continue to be Member owned and concentrate on service rather than generating excessive profit to reward shareholders. Hume Bank will continue to focus on developing and retaining relationships with its customers and will do so by investing in its people, its communities and in the products and services it provides.

If that sounds familiar, perhaps it is because they are the same principles that Hume has been operating under for many years and we don't see any reason to change.

BOARD CHANGES

A few months after Henri Cruddas' resignation, the Board appointed Michael Gobel to the Board. Michael's extensive experience in financial services and contribution to the local community were quickly recognised by other Directors and he was elected to the position of Deputy Chairman despite his relatively short background with Hume. Members will have an opportunity to confirm his appointment at the 2013 Annual General Meeting.

THANKS

Many people have been involved in Hume's success over the past 58 years; whether as Directors or as employees. Their contributions allowed the current Board and Management to seriously contemplate becoming a bank and, as a result, we owe them our thanks. It is hard to imagine that the six local businessmen who convened the meeting at which Hume Permanent Co-operative Building and Investment Society Limited was formed in St Patricks' Hall on 5th April 1955 would ever have anticipated that Hume could, or would ever become Hume Bank Limited.

Although the efforts of all of the people involved over the years prepared the groundwork for success; current and recent Directors, Management and Staff have created an organisation that has big dreams; and the capacity to see them come to life. On behalf of the 56,939 owners of Hume Building Society, we take this opportunity to publically thank all of our colleagues for their passion, commitment and skill.
